

African Savannah

a drawing of African safari

Dear Mrs. B,
I am in a Maasai village in Tanzania. The people there live a nomadic life, with many cattle and children. They live in the plains areas and travel around. Their culture is created and decided on by the elder men of their tribe. They live in houses they build themselves. They don't have contact with the outside world.

Mrs. B
12345 Kinnelon Road
Kinnelon, NJ 07405

read • write • think
International Reading Association NCIE